

Allesley Parish Council

Standing Orders

Approved January 2018

How to use standing orders

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. They are used to confirm a council's internal organisational, administrative and procurement procedures and procedural matters for meetings. They are not the same as the policies of a council but they may refer to them. A local council must have standing orders for the procurement of contracts.

Meetings of full council, councillors, the Responsible Financial Officer and Proper Officer are subject to many statutory requirements. A council should have standing orders to confirm those statutory requirements. A council should have standing orders to control the number, place, quorum, notices and other procedures for committee and sub-committee meetings because these are subject to fewer statutory requirements. If it does not, committees and sub-committees may adopt their own standing orders.

Standing orders that are in bold type contain statutory requirements.

The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the Responsible Financial Officer.

Standing orders general information

- a All or part of a standing order, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, may be suspended by resolution in relation to the consideration of an item on the agenda for a meeting.
- b Except at the Annual Meeting; a motion to add to or vary or revoke one or more of the council's standing orders, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, shall be proposed by a special motion, the written notice by at least three councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with standing order 9 below
- c The Proper Officer shall provide a copy of the council's standing orders to a councillor as soon as possible after he has delivered his acceptance of office form.
- d The decision of the chairman of a meeting as to the application of standing orders at the meeting shall be final.

Footnotes for Councillors information (not part of standing orders):

From Local Councils Explained (2013) page 154 re : public participation

“The Chairman must ensure that any public participation session is in accordance with standing orders. The Chairman should be mindful that members of the public may be less experienced at speaking in public and may not be familiar with the formal proceedings of a meeting.”

The public participation section is the opportunity for the public to communicate with the Council and the time set aside should be regarded as the public's time. Debating, disagreeing, discussing with points within the public section will eat into this time and Councillors should be mindful that the standing orders have been suspended and that Council input should be held until the standing orders have been restored or, the item is brought onto a future agenda for debate and decision.

As a 'closed' meeting Parish Councillors and the Clerk should be seated at the main table, with any other persons seated in the public area. Copies of the Agenda and written guidance on procedural matters may be available for members of the public as a matter of good practice.
